

ETHICAL BEHAVIOUR

BEST PRACTICES OF MANAGEMENT CONSULTANTS

One-Day Certification Course

ABOUT THE COURSE

Ethical Behaviour introduces learners to the Code of Professional Conduct to which all Certified Management Consultants (CMCs) in Canada must adhere.

Guided by a CMC or FCMC Instructor, the class reviews various aspects of the Code and reviews real life challenges where ethics must be considered to maintain a CMC's professional standards.

Learners will gain understanding of how to avoid, prevent, and resolve, ethical dilemmas frequently encountered by Management Consultants.

FORMAT

This blended course has three components:

- Self-paced eLearning module and independent review of the Code of Professional Conduct.
- Live and interactive virtual classroom session (via Zoom)
- Online exam

WHO SHOULD ENROLL?

This course is for the new consultant looking to elevate their skills to the standards of a Certified Management Consultant (CMC).

The EMC is required for all CMC Candidates and is open to any consulting professional, even if they are not pursuing the designation at this time.

DELIVERY

Live, online classes via Zoom.

A stable internet connection, microphone, and webcam are required to participate.

COST

$475 / CMC-Canada members

$975 / non-members
